

Think of as many Christmas songs as possible that have the word "Angel" in them. 🎵

Pretend you are a Christmas tree. Can anyone guess what you are?

Call someone and tell them this Christmas joke:

Q. What do you give a reindeer with an upset tummy?
A. An "ELK" seltzer!

Act out the Shepherd and sheep's reactions to when the angels appeared in the night sky with the Good News.

The secret phrase is "Joseph and Mary."
Give clues and see who can guess it.

Everyone must give their best version of Santa's famous "Ho Ho Ho!"

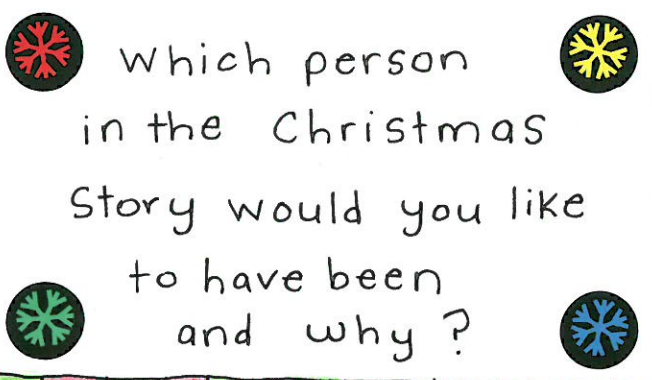

Sing "Silent Night" as quietly as you can.

Act out your best interpretation of a snowman melting.

Which person in the Christmas Story would you like to have been and why?

What is your favorite food to eat at Christmas time?

Sing "Happy Birthday" to Jesus.

What is the best Christmas gift you ever gave? Received?

What is your favorite Christmas movie and favorite part/scene in the movie?

Shh... The secret word is "Star."
Pantomime it and see who can guess what you are.

What gift would you have brought Jesus if you were a wise man?

Make a drum out of something in the room. Sing "Little Drummer Boy" and play your drum.

Shhh ... the secret word is "Angel!"

Pantomime it and see who can guess what you are.

Should a Christmas tree have white lights or colored lights?

Rap the lyrics of your favorite Christmas Song.

If Santa got stuck in the chimney, how would you help him get out?

Describe the sounds and smells that must have been at the stable on Christmas night.

Tell a story of how Rudolph's nose turned a different color.

Sing a Christmas carol but replace all of the words with "HO HO HO!"

Sing "Joy to the World" with your tongue out.
